

Become a Friend of the Reserve

Friends of the Reserve is a non-profit organization whose members provide assistance and support to the Apalachicola National Estuarine Research Reserve's goals and programs.

As a member of F.O.R., you will be joining a group of people with similar interests and concerns for natural resources. You can become directly involved with the Reserve's research, stewardship and education programs by volunteering to help with field trips, seminars, cultural events, newsletters, and special projects.

You will be regularly informed of Reserve activities through newsletters, special mailings, and F.O.R. meetings. The opportunities for involvement are unlimited. Whatever your talents and interests the Reserve can use your assistance and support. You, the environment, and your community will benefit as a result of your membership in F.O.R.
